

Comments

By pressing the comments button you get to this view.

Here you can manage comments which is used to preset comments in the app when reporting errors.

You can choose between general, deviation and damage comments.

The first button adds a new comment.

The second button edits the current comment.

The third button deletes the current comment.

